2030 SUSTAINABILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY STRATEGY

Our Roadmap to 2030

Our Sustainability & Responsibility roadmap directly supports the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and is aligned to their 2030 plan.

The four pillars of our roadmap, Nurturing Terroir, Valuing People, Circular Making and Responsible Hosting, address all aspects of our business from grain to glass. Each of our pillars sets out ambitious goals and targets to drive innovation, brand differentiation and employee attraction. The strategy has been implemented throughout the business including measurement and reporting against these targets.

Explore our 2030 commitments

We strive to lead in sustainability within the Champagne & Spirits industry. We set ambitious targets and transparently report our progress, which is regularly assessed by external rating agencies and organizations.

Pernod Anis

Marseille, France
70 cl
40.0%

Nose: Anise, fennel, liquorice, herbal notes.
Taste: Star anise, fennel, coriander, mint.

Pernod is an aniseed liqueur with a fresh, complex and distinctive flavour of star anise and a number of aromatic herbs. Launched in the 1920s after absinthe was banned due to the infamous wormwood, its recipe is unchanged since 1938. Serve with 3 parts water.

Pernod Absinthe

Marseille, France
70 cl
68.0%

Nose: Aniseed, wormwood, fennel.
Taste: Liquorice with balanced bitterness.

In the 1830s, artists and writers discovered absinthe and brought it to Paris cafés. Banned in 1915, it took nearly a century for the “Green Fairy” to return. Renewed interest in vintage cocktails sparked its revival, with its complex taste of green, spicy herbs and spices.

Ricard

Marseille, France
70 cl
45.0%

Nose: Anise, woody notes, provencal herbs.
Taste: Round & rich, fresh anise, liquorice.

Created in 1932 by Paul Ricard, this popular French aperitif is the world’s best-selling aniseed liqueur (pastis). Produced in Marseille, Ricard is a unique bouquet of natural ingredients and flavours: star anise, liquorice, fennel and aromatic herbs from Provence.
